I Basis for Jurisdiction

Federal courts are courts of limited jurisdiction (limited power). Generally, only two types of cases can be heard in federal court: cases involving a federal question and cases involving diversity of citizenship of the parties. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1331, a case arising under the United States Constitution or federal laws or treaties is a federal question case. Under 28 U.S.C. § 1332, a case in which a citizen of one State sues a citizen of another State or nation and the amount at stake is more than $75,000 is a diversity of citizenship case. In a diversity of citizenship case, no defendant may be a citizen of the same State as any plaintiff.

What is the basis for federal court jurisdiction? (check all that apply)

☒ Federal question ☐ Diversity of citizenship

Fill out the paragraphs in this section that apply to this case.

A . If the Basis for Jurisdiction Is a Federal Question

(If more than one defendant is named in the complaint, attach an additional page providing the same information for each additional defendant.)

3. The Amount in Controversy

The amount in controversy—the amount the plaintiff claims the defendant owes or the amount at stake—is more than $75,000, not counting interest and costs of court, because (explain):

■ Statement of Claim

Write a short and plain statement of the claim. Do not make legal arguments. State as briefly as possible the facts showing that each plaintiff is entitled to the damages or other relief sought. State how each defendant was involved and what each defendant did that caused the plaintiff harm or violated the plaintiff's rights, including the dates and places of that involvement or conduct. If more than one claim is asserted, number each claim and write a short and plain statement of each claim in a separate paragraph. Attach additional pages if needed.

The claimant, Raifle A. Demetrius, filed an initial claim for PUA in January of 2021. The Virginia Unemployment Commission approved the claim and mailed a monetary valuation determination February of 2021. The claimant filed 15 weeks of weekly certifications and received $0 in payments. The claimant spoke to a representative in the Norfolk office and was told that his claim has been denied and he must file in The District of Columbia despite his work history being from Virginia. The District of Columbia unemployment office stated this recommendation was made in error. The claimant called every physical Virginia Unemployment Commission office, many contact phone numbers, faxes, emails, and letters mailed and to-date has received no contact. Virginia Unemployment Commission has failed to provide claimant the due process of being heard. The claimant has attempted many avenues of contact without getting any resolution or response at all, nor due process of claim for benefits. At present, April 23, 2021, the claimant remains unpaid without any due process of claim for benefits.

IV. Relief

State briefly and precisely what damages or other relief the plaintiff asks the court to order. Do not make legal arguments. Include any basis for claiming that the wrongs alleged are continuing at the present time. Include the amounts of any actual damages claimed for the acts alleged and the basis for these amounts. Include any punitive or exemplary damages claimed, the amounts, and the reasons you claim you are entitled to actual or punitive money damages.

Pro Se 1 (Rev. 12/16) Complaint for a Civil Case

$42,380 in punitive damages
